

Edna K. Gulbinski

OBITUARY

Edna K. Gulbinski, 147 N. Fourth St., Frackville, died Monday morning at her residence.

Born in Utica, N.Y., she was a daughter of the late Boleslaw and Josephine Nowitska Kanavage.

She had been employed as a waitress at the former Longo's Restaurant, Saint Clair, until retiring.

Mrs. Gulbinski was a member of St. Ann's Church, Frackville, St. Ann's Guild and Union of Polish Women's Club, Frackville.

Surviving is her husband, Julian, with whom she celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary in February; a son, Julian J., Richboro; two sisters, Violet J. D'Orta, Spring Hill, Fla., and Edna Solvick, North Ridge, Calif.; a brother, Dr. Chester Kanavage, Augusta, Ga.; four grandchildren; four-great grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 9:30 a.m. Friday from Thomas M. Sullivan Funeral Home, Frackville. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10 a.m. in Annunciation BVM Church, Frackville. Interment will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Englewood.

