

Peter Dyszel

OBITUARY

Services for Peter Dyszel, 65, of Englewood, MD, who died unexpectedly Wednesday at his home, will be held at 9:30 a.m. Monday from Thoms M. Sullivan Funeral Home, Frackville. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10 a.m. in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Frackville, by the Rev. Al Byrne. Interment will be in the parish cemetery, Englewood, Frackville.

Born in New York City, he was a son of the late Peter and Bertha Erdok Dyszel.

He was an Air Force veteran of the Korean War.

He had been employed as a mill wright at Bethlehem Steel Corp. for 24 years, retiring in 1994.

He was a member of United Steel Workers Union.

His wife, the former Theresa D. Purcell, died in 1985.

Surviving are a son, Joseph P., Edgewood, MD; three daughters,

Shawn D. Dyszel and Teresa A. Leavitt, both of Edgewood, and Lynn M. Jacoby, Hanover; two brothers, Michael, Frackville, and Andrew, New Boston; three sisters, Bertha Leiby, Camp Hill, Anna Marie Eippbert, Frackville, and Helen Nause, Hazleton; several nieces and nephews.