

James F. Dellock

OBITUARY

James F. Dellock, 64, Frackville, died Tuesday morning at Hershey Medical Center, where he was a patient since August 27.

Born in Frackville, he was a son of the late Stephen and Florence Dillman Dellock. He was a lifelong Frackville resident. He was a 1950 graduate of the former Frackville High School. He received an associate degree in drafting and design at Penn State University in 1958.

He was last employed Rockwell International, Reading, as a quality control engineer for 35 years, retiring in 1994.

He was of the Catholic faith.

A daughter, Tracey Dellock, died in 1970.

Surviving are his wife, the former Anne C. Monaghan, to whom he was married 39 years; four daughters, Mary Lynne Adam, Reading, Karen Riegel, Minersville, Barbara Mettam, Auburn, and Carey Dellock, Hershey; a sister, Dorothy Swartz, Frackville; two brothers, Michael, Orwigsburg, and Stephen, Frackville; six grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday from Nice Funeral Home, Frackville. The Rev. Dominik Kalata will officiate. Interment will be at the convenience of the family.